Day 08 Saturday October 6: Palas de Rei.
(Rest Day: 4.5 miles | 7.2 kilometers | 10,500 steps)
Today, you will take a break to rest your bodies and shake off any fatigue. After Mass, there will be time to reflect on the journey thus far and to spend at your own leisure. Dinner and overnight will be provided in Palas de Rei.

Day 09 Sunday October 7: Palas de Rei – Arzuza.
(Walking Day: 16 miles | 25.7 kilometers | 37,700 steps)
Breakfast will be served at your hotel. Your pilgrimage continues as you will travel from Palas de Rei to the bustling small town of Arzuza. Before arriving in Arzuza, your group will stop at Melide.
This town is a crucial point of El Camino because it is where the French and Oviedo routes converge. Upon arrival in Melide, you will notice the old roads that date back to the fourteenth century, which are some of the oldest in the region of Galicia. After lunch, you will leave the Lugo province and enter into the province of A Coruña. A medieval bridge leads pilgrims to Ribadiso, before returning to Arzuza, the next highlight of the day is Sarria. Surrounding by a beautiful scenery stands the Gothic Church of Magdalena, the only part of the old Augustinian monastery that has come down to us. The little town is famous nowadays for its Galician cheese factories. Dinner and an overnight in Arzuza.

Day 10 Monday October 08: Arzuza – Arca de O Pino/Amenal.
(Walking Day: 16 miles | 25.7 kilometers | 37,700 steps)
Your journey is almost over as you will walk to the largest community before Santiago, Arca de O Pino! Upon walking this route, you will immerse yourselves in the fragrant eucalyptus groves and experience the breathtaking scenery. At a point throughout your walk, you will stop and enjoy a picnic lunch. Following lunch, you will continue your journey and cross the enormous Benedictine Monastery. As you explore this village, you will notice joy etched on the faces of the pilgrims. Although they have traveled a long distance, they are not weary. With God and St. James guiding their paths, excitement, and anticipation continues for their arrival in Santiago.

Day 11 Tuesday October 09: Arca de O Pino/Amenal – Monte Do Gozo – Santiago de Compostela.
(Walking Day: 16 miles | 25.7 kilometers | 37,700 steps)
Today, you will culminate the walking portion of your journey! Excitement mounts as the trail brings you closer to our destination. Walk through rolling terrain towards Lavacolla, where medieval pilgrims traditionally bathed in the river to purify themselves before arriving in the holy city of Santiago. From here we will begin to ascend the Monte do Gozo, “Mount of Joy”, the point where pilgrims first catch sight of the spires of the Cathedral of Santiago, these days surrounded by the bustling, new city of Santiago de Compostela. On approach to the center, we will pass through the city’s walls, and under the Arch of Obispo, drawing us forward into the great Obradoiro Square. Here we have finally arrived at our destination, St. James Cathedral. Upon arrival, feel free to say a small prayer in thanksgiving to Our Lord for keeping you safe throughout the walking pilgrimage. At this time, you will check-in to your hotel and enjoy free time to explore Galicia’s capital, Santiago. This evening you will enjoy a nice dinner, followed by a very restful overnight in Santiago de Compostela.

Day 12 Wednesday October 10: Santiago de Compostela.
(Tour Day: 3.6 miles | 5.7 kilometers | 7,480 steps)
This morning you will awaken in the beautiful city of Santiago de Compostela! Formed by Galician granite, this medieval city is one of the finest architectural complexes in Europe as it encompasses Romanesque, Gothic and Baroque styles. Additionally, the Cathedral contains numerous and valuable pieces of art that truly captivate the eye. Upon entering the Cathedral, the tradition will lead as you will hug the dazzling statue of St. James. Following this intimate embrace, you will descend into the crypt where the Patron Saint of Pilgrims’ relics is kept. Following your visit, you will enjoy free time for lunch on your own before your sightseeing tour of the city. Some stops on your tour include the Obradoiro Square, Fonseca Palace, Gelmerza palace, Franco Street, and much more. Your evening will be free to spend at your leisure until a final dinner with your group. You will spend a final overnight in Santiago de Compostela.

(Tour Day: 3.6 miles | 5.7 kilometers | 7,480 steps)
Breakfast in the hotel. We travel out today to one of the most western points of continental Europe! We firstly come to the lovely seaside town of Finisterre. It is situated on the rocky Costa da Morte Coast and is named because of the number of ships that foundered these seas. During our time here we will visit the Chapel of Nosa Señora do Ben Soces, dating from the 18th century. Nearby we explore Cape Finisterre, meaning “Land’s End”. This name stems from the fact that this area is on a remote peninsula that is one of the westernmost points of land in Spain. It is also the final destination for pilgrims on the Way of St James. Time permitting we may visit the spectacular lighthouse, a monument called “Monte Facho” at the tip of Cape Finisterre overlooking the Atlantic Ocean. On the road up to the lighthouse is the parish Church of Santa Maria de Fisterra which contains the Chapel of Santo Cristo. Today we will also travel to Muxia to visit the Sanctuary dedicated to Our Lady of La Barca. It is located in a very unique spot, right by the ocean, and believed to have been a sacred place of cult for villagers since pre-Christian times. Since the 12th century, pilgrims on the Camino de Santiago have travelled further on after reaching Santiago de Compostela to pay tribute to Our Lady of the Boat in Muxia. Dinner and overnight in Santiago de Compostela.

Day 14 Friday October 12: Santiago de Compostela – Madrid.
Following breakfast, you will be transferred to Santiago de Compostela airport, where you will board your short flight to Madrid. You will stay the night and enjoy dinner as per your own arrangements.

Day 15 Saturday October 13: Madrid - Home
Today you will enjoy an early breakfast and depart for your return flight home.
